

Instructional Resources Interest Group

Minutes CSCA 2011

President Heather Nesemeier, Vice President Jen McCullough, Secretary C. Kyle Rudick

Members in Attendance:

Linda Dickmeyer
Donna Pawlowski
Robin Jones
Tushar R. Oza
David Wendt
Shannon VanHorn
Marcia Dixson
Kathryn Golsan
Heather Nesemeier
C. Kyle Rudick
Jen McCullough

I) Call to order- Heather Nesemeier

Old Business

II) Mitchell McKinney spoke about next year's Cleveland conference
- pushing the submission date earlier Sept 13th

III) Minutes 2010- Motion to approve Robin Jones, seconded David Wendt. Approved

IV) Shannon VanHorn: Bylaws are on record with CSCA. To send to Kathie Cesa for distribution.

V) Jen McCullough- Submissions: 7 papers/ 5 accepted. 10 panels/ 7 accepted.
- Top Paper: Seltzer-King and Purdue
-No Top Panel Award

New Business

VI) Nominations- Self-nominated, Secretary- Kathryn B. Golsan, motion to for nominations to cease Dr. David Wendt, seconded Dr. Tushar Oza

Kathryn B. Golsan- voted to secretary by acclamation.

VII) Discussion for ideas for 2012 conference

Help I need help with teaching (enter subject/content here) online.
Uses for Skype in the classroom.

Online connecting (Skype) for office hours

Connecting through Facebook (or other types of media). Creating private FB accounts for classes.

Invasion of space using popular mediums (such as FB)

Difference between non-traditional/traditional students when teaching through technology

Pluses and minuses of different mediums (e.g., FB, BB, Skype)

How to get students to get the textbook? Whether paper or Ebook.

Explore new technologies: kindle, cell phones, Ipad, what do they help or hinder?

Debate for what is lost/gained when teaching through technology

Teaching about or through technology (or both)

Newest Bling. What's hot for technology for education.

Intellectual property. Ownership of online materials through BB, gmail, checkit.com, etc.

VIII) C. Kyle Rudick to send minutes out August/September

IX) Adjournment- Heather Nesemeier