

Brings to Ohio...

Would you like to market 2 hours a week and see over 80 new patients per month? The New Patient Maven teaches great strategies in a step-by-step fashion. If you are currently doing health talks, this accelerated knowledge will impact your next talk and will save you time and money. This course will also show you the biggest pitfall all chiropractors make at Health Talks and why it holds them back! When the "New Patient Maven" speaks, practices grow!

At These Seminars Attendees Will:

- Find out which hot topics to cover (and which ones to avoid)
• Learn how to get into corporations and other groups to do health presentations
• Establish relationships for repeat talks at the same company/group
• Cover multiple health topics to the same audience AND be effective
• Give a health talk unlike any other doctor
• Build "health bridges" that relate chiropractic to motivating issues for all Americans

These new seminars are conducted in small groups for excellent results. The information is current and the prepared material is extensive. These 'Maven' seminars are brought to you by the OSCA and held in different cities for one day only. The content is geared towards doctors and office managers only who are active in new patient marketing. For more specific information, visit www.NewPatientMaven.com. Pre-Registration is mandatory!

$349 per seat for OSCA members/$399 per seat for non-members
